

Not that I
anticipate anyone's
reading this, but at least I can vent my indignation.

Apparantly Mr.
Pappas cares nothing
for his roots.
Democracy was born
in Greece and the actions of a
decendent of that
once magnificent
culture seems bent
on destroying the
legacy of his
ancestors as it
existed in this
country before the beginning of the
rise in facism here.

This behavior is
clearly unamerican,
unfair and devisive.

I wonder if Mr.
Pappas's forebearers
would consider their descendent as having achieved the American Dream but
turning it into an
unamerican
nightmare. Enough is enough. Whether
Mr. Pappas's
intended action is
legal or not. It is unethical, but then
so is most of what
this administration
has done and caused
to be done. Even though We The People
will have to live
with the
consequences of the
corruption, so will
those who have
neither conscience
nor ethics. It
appears that the far right has no concept
of what is right and
what is wrong.
Insanity is no
excuse.

Pappas Telecasting
Companies'
'donation' of $325,000 in airtime
to Republican
candidates in
certain areas is yet
another example of a
powerful media group
abusing its
privileged access to the public airwaves.

Localism is not
served when a
corporate
headquarters decides
to provide one side
in local elections a
louder voice than others. During
election season,
local audiences
should be offered
genuine debate --
not disingenuous
offers to "purchase"
an equal amount of
response time.

Pappas uses the
public airwaves free
of charge and is
obligated by law to
serve the public interest. Pappas'
actions are legally
questionable and
cast doubt on
whether Pappas truly
intends to serve the public interest.
Their actions show
why we need to
strengthen media
ownership rules, not
weaken them.
Further, they show
why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than just a
returned postcard.
Thank you.
